How To Request Exam Accommodations

Guidelines and Frequently Asked Questions
All supporting documentation must be submitted at the same time as the Request for Exam Accommodation Form. This form must be submitted directly to Missouri Restaurant Association for approval.

What types of conditions or impairments might need to be accommodated?
The most commonly accommodated conditions include:
• Learning disabilities
• Visual impairments
• ADHD
• Emotional disorders such as major depression
• Physical impairments

What type of documentation must be submitted when requesting accommodations?
1. A letter written and signed by a physician, guidance counselor, disability support specialist, social worker, psychiatrist, or other professional qualified to evaluate the disability, who has made an individual assessment of the examinee, which includes the examinee’s name, date of birth, and the date of diagnosis or evaluation.
   • The letter must be printed on the Certified Examiner’s letterhead, and include the Examiner’s credentials, title, address, and telephone number.

2. Other evidence of prior diagnosis, any modifications, accommodations, or auxiliary aids or services received in a similar testing situation.
3. Other evidence of any modification, accommodation or related aids or services provided under an Individualized Education Program (IEP) under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, or any plan describing services pursuant to Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Who is considered a Certified Examiner?
A physician, guidance counselor, disability support specialist, social worker, psychiatrist, or other professional qualified to evaluate the disability.

Who can read the exam aloud once the exam accommodation has been approved?
The reader must be someone who is not acting as the Registered Proctor for the exam session. The reader can’t be anyone who is related to the examinee, a Certified Food Protection Manager, a direct supervisor or manager, nor can it be someone that has a vested interest in food protection. The reader of the exam must sign and submit the Reader Guidelines and Non-Disclosure & Confidentiality Agreement form. This form must be submitted along with the Request for Exam Accommodation form.

Note: Readers may not provide cues to the examinee or answer any questions during the administration of the exam. The Exam must be in a proctored environment where the reader is not active as the Exam Proctor. The reader and proctor can’t serve both roles.

When should the request for Exam Accommodations be submitted?
It is strongly recommended that the request for exam accommodations be submitted well in advance of the exam date to allow for ServSafe approval, as well as coordination between the examinee and Exam Proctor.

Can the ServSafe Exam be taken with an accommodation that has not been approved by ServSafe?
Under no circumstance should an examinee be allowed to take the ServSafe exam with an unapproved accommodation. If the requested accommodation has not been approved by ServSafe, the examinee may either postpone the exam until the accommodation is approved by ServSafe or take the exam without the requested accommodation.
How will I know if the request for exam accommodation has been approved or denied?
Approval or denial of an exam accommodation will be communicated directly to the examinee and/or Exam Proctor via email or fax number. Examinees are required to provide a valid email address or fax number when submitting a request for exam accommodation or foreign language translation.

The examinee is illiterate or has difficulties with reading comprehension unrelated to a disability. What are the options?
We encourage submission of a completed request for exam accommodation form, along with a statement from an educator, doctor, trainer, school counselor, or other professional who can attest to the examinees difficulties. The statement must be provided by someone who does not represent a conflict of interest. Each request will be considered on an individual basis and processed as a courtesy accommodation.
