CORNHOLE TERMINOLOGY

The following is a list of terms commonly used in cornhole:

ACE OR COW PIE: A bag lands on the board, which is worth one point.

AIRMAIL: A cornhole that does not slide or bounce on the board but goes directly into the hole.

BACK DOOR OR DIRTY ROLLUP: A cornhole that goes over the top of a blocker and into the hole.

BACKSTOP: A bag that lands past the cornhole but remains on the board creating a backboard for a slider to knock into without going off the board.

BLOCKER: An ace that lands in front of the hole, essentially blocking the hole from sliders.

CORNFUSION: When players or teams cannot agree on the scoring of a given inning.

CORNHOLE OR DRANO: A bag that falls in the hole, which is worth three points. The alternative name is a reference to a trademark, that of a sink clog clearing product.

CORNUCOPIA: Achieved when a player throws all four bags into the hole in one inning.

DIRTY BAG: A bag that is on the ground or is hanging off the board touching the ground

FLOP: Type of toss that didn't spin the bag horizontally or vertically. Without rotation or spin.

GRASSHOPPER: A bag that bounces off the grass or ground and lands on the board for a point.

SCREAMING EAGLE, EDDIE THE EAGLE: A bag that goes beyond the board without hitting the board. Screeching like an eagle is an additionally accepted reaction to making such a mistake.

SLIPPERY GRANNY: Scoring three bags in a row on the board only.

GRAND BAG, DOUBLE DEUCE, CATORCE FOUR-BAGGER OR FOUR-PACK: Four cornholes by a single player in a single round. There is a tradition in some areas where any casual player who puts all four bags in the hole on a single turn gets to sign the board, often with some type of ceremony and recognition.

TRIP DIP: When a single player cornholes 3 out of the 4 bags in a single round.

HANGER OR SHOOK: An ace on the lip of the hole ready to drop.

HONORS: The team who tosses first, resulting from the team scoring last.

HOOKER: A bag hitting the board and hooking or curving around a blocker and going in the hole.

JUMPER: A bag that strikes another bag on the board causing it to jump up into the cornhole.

MADDEN: when a player violently throws the bag at the opposing player.

PERREGO: When a player refuses to play Baggo because they're intimidated by their competitors.

POLICE: The cornhole referee.

SALLY' OR CORN PATTY: A toss that is thrown too weakly and lands on the ground before reaching the board.

SHORTBAG: When a bag lands on the ground just before the cornhole board.

SHUCKER: When a player pitches a bag and it strikes an opposing players bag knocking it off the board.

SKUNK, WHITEWASH OR SHUTOUT: A game that, by some rules, ends in an 11-0 score.

SLIDER: A cornhole that slides into the hole.

SWISH: A bag that goes directly in the hole without touching the board. More often referred to as 'Airmail'

SHOTGUN: Throwing all your bags at once.

WASH: When each team has scored exactly the same number of points in an inning, thereby "washing out" all points scored in the inning.
